MIDDLEBURG.

It is not remarkable that Caleb Powers never learned who murdered Gov. Goebel until after the death of Tallow Dick Combs? Mark my prediction, the crime is going to be saddled on the dead Negro.

The homes of Charley McWhorter and D. G. Elliott are connected by phone and in preparing the Sunday school lesson these two gentlemen exchange views over the wires. Their arguments are said to be quite spirited at times.

The Sunday school convention at Green River Saturday was not as well attended as was expected, but much interest was manifested by those present, and we believe good was accomplished for the Sunday school cause. Rev. J. Q. Montgomery was present and gave a number of good talks.

Watterson says he will vote the Democratic ticket at the November election. How do we know he will? His late utterance in the Courier Journal doesn't indicate that he will. It might be well for Democrats all over the country to repudiate the Courier Journal and remind the Colonel of 1896.

Geo. P. Garner, the clever Ypsomite merchant, went to Cincinnati last week to buy goods. Jason Lawhorn and V. T. Wilson attended the Somerset fair. W. G. Royalty has returned from a visit to his daughter, Mrs. E. S. Fisher, at Crab Orchard. Miss Salena Jones is improving. Miss Hattie Lee went to Kingsville Saturday. Rev. J. W. Hall came down from Lexington Friday in order to attend the Sunday school convention Saturday, at Green River. He gave several talks. Mrs. Hannah Taylor, of Indianapolis, is visiting relatives here. R. M. Sharp and wife went to the Somerset fair. Wm. Wheat went to Cincinnati. Caleb and Mrs. Newell, of Waynesburg, are guests of Ciel McAninch. Mrs. Lucy Wesley is recovering from an attack of flux. Circuit Clerk Jason Wesley and wife were here Friday to see Dr. and Mrs. J. T. Wesley. Mrs. J. S. Wesley, of Liberty, was here a few days ago.

Camp Meeting.

Jumbo, Ky., Sept. 9.—Our meeting is getting along nicely despite the rain and other hindrances. God is honoring and blessing this work. A good amount was raised Sunday to help pay balance on new tabernacle. A large and appreciative crowd were here. We had no disturbances of any kind and all seemed well pleased with the meeting. It will continue over next Sunday, Sept. 15th. Rev. L. L. Pickett will preach the dedicatory sermon Sunday at 2:30 p. m. He will also make a prohibition speech Sunday night. Do not fail to come and hear him. Also do not fail to come and hear Miss Lucy Lee Mahan, who will have charge of most of the services until the meeting closes. Rev. Martin leaves us to-day for Missouri. His wife will be with us to play and sing until the meeting closes. Every body come. Yours very truly, CLARENCE J. SIFFLE.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by all druggists.

MATRIMONIAL.

John R. Mullins and Miss Angie Lester, both of Boyle county, were married here last week by Dr. W. F. Vaughan.

Miss Daisy Collier and E. H. Walter, a merchant of Boyle county, eloped to Chattanooga and were married. The bride's father telegraphed to have the marriage stopped but it was too late. The knot had been tied.

Married on Tuesday, suicided on Wednesday, is the record of Alvin Maupin, formerly of Clay City Ky., who drank carbolic acid in Annapolis, Maryland, with fatal effect. Maupin left a note saying he had been ordered to Nashville, Tenn., on duty and would rather die than leave his wife.

Camp Meeting.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley's Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. Penny's Drug Store.

The couple have been prominent in Lexington society for several years.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid make it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing one—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influences with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, biliousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed by Penny's Drug Store, 50c.

"Getting the habit" makes us do many things that we would not otherwise do. Our people have gotten the "fair going" habit as is evidenced by the large crowd that attended the Somerset fair. There has hardly been a fair in this section of the State that has not secured a liberal patronage from the West End.

The graded school opened Monday with over 100 pupils and the prospect for 40 or 50 more by the end of the week. The only change in the corps of teachers is in the music department. Miss M. E. The speech delivered by Judge S. W. Hager, democratic nominee for governor, at the opening of the campaign at Lexington, is being sent out in pamphlet form. It is well worth the time spent in reading it, being clear in every detail and replete with sound doctrine. It reviews the service rendered to Kentucky and Kentuckians, shows plainly the cost of conducting an economical government, such as has been given us by Gov. Beckham and compares it with the Bradley-Taylor administration. In fine, it may be seen by any intelligent observer that Kentucky is in the pink of condition financially and otherwise. Augustus E. Willson is raising a hue and cry wherever he goes, against the "grafters" who, he alleges, are in control of the State affairs at present, but he is unable to prove any of his wild assertions. He is crying out for a "look at the books," wherein he hopes to unearth something rotten. Let the voters bear steadily in mind that Gov. Bradley rode into office on just such a shallow platform. And what did he find? It is a matter of history well-known to every man, that he found nothing over which an objection could be raised, for the State was on a basis firm as the Rock of Gibraltar. It is also a matter of history that Gov. Bradley found none of the earmarks nor evidences of the assassin; he found none of the mountain hordes to harass and throw obstacles in his path, nor was he confronted by a band of cut throats and hoodlums devastating the halls of the State buildings, hovering around the very threshold of government and threatening his life. History, only a few years old, will tell you when such conditions as we have just cited, existed; therefore it is needless, we hope, to remind the worthy, sterling, sound-thinking people of the duty that will be their's in November. Every democrat, every lover of a government that is free from assassination, free from a malicious determination to trample under foot the rights of a sovereign people, will see that his duty is to support the ticket from Beckham to the humblest candidate for constable and we believe that the masses will do it. So note it be.

The announcement that William Jennings Bryan will make six speeches in Kentucky for the State Democratic ticket has renewed the suggestions heard from time to time that in the event he is again nominated for the presidency, nothing could be more in harmony with the natural order of things than that a Southern Democratic leader should be chosen as his running mate. The name of Senator James B. McCreary is the one that prominent leaders throughout the Commonwealth are pointing to as that most suitable for the honor. That the Senator would prove a most popular candidate, and could at once command the support of the solid South, is not doubted by those who have taken the time to investigate political conditions.

In an interview in Louisville Judge R. L. Stout said: "I am the only official in Kentucky empowered to grant immunity to Taylor. Taylor was correct when he gave out the statement in Indianapolis that neither Gov. Beckham nor Commonwealth's Attorney Robert Franklin has power to grant him immunity from arrest." Judge J. C. Sims, of Bowling Green, Powers' chief counsel, admitted that Judge Stout's contention is correct. It is to be hoped that Judge Stout will grant the immunity and that Taylor will come back and give his testimony.

Secretary Taft will sail from Seattle next Wednesday for the Orient on a journey which will not end until he has made a complete circuit of the globe.

The ravings and wild harangues of Mr. Willson, republican nominee for governor, remind us of a discussion two Negroes once engaged over the merits of Gen. Joseph E. Johnson and Gen. Braxton Bragg. Gen. Johnson's champion had just finished a long defense of his favorite when Gen. Bragg's "nigger" replied: "You talks and you talks but you never locates; you argues and you argues but you never ascertains no subject."

HON. MAX M. HANBERRY, of Cadiz, Trigg county, the leading Republican of the First congressional district, is out in a long statement, in which he says he is not in favor of ever making another nomination in that county so long as the Negroes are permitted to participate. Unfortunately there is no law in this State by which the Negro can be disfranchised, so the best thing Mr. Hanberry can do is to come over to the democratic party and vote with white people.

POLITICAL.

Clark county republicans nominated H. G. Garnett for Representative.

Judge S. W. Hager and Hon. John K. Hendrick spoke at West Liberty, addressing a large crowd.

Muhlenburg county Democrats in convention at Greenville nominated W. O. Smith for Representative.

Judge William E. Dowling won the nomination for Representative in the Anderson county Democratic primary.

The Republicans of Cleveland nominated Congressman Theodore E. Burton for Mayor. The nomination was made by acclamation.

It has been settled that Mr. Bryan's first speech to be delivered in the interest of the democratic ticket in Kentucky will be at Elizabethtown.

Christian county republicans will hold a convention at Hopkinsville Sept. 21 to nominate a candidate for the Legislature. There are three candidates.

Judge S. W. Hager and Hon. John K. Hendrick spoke in Paintsville to a large crowd. All their greetings in the Big Sandy valley have been large and enthusiastic.

The date of the beginning of United States Senator Borah's trial at Boise City is September 23. He is charged with conspiracy to defraud the Federal Government by securing illegal entry of timber lands.

Much interest has been aroused at Washington by the publication in a New York paper of the names of the men who, it is alleged, at Harriman's request, contributed $250,000 to the Roosevelt campaign fund.

The county jailers of Kentucky held a meeting at Lexington at which J. R. Pfanz, jailer of the Jefferson county jail, was elected president. Mr. Pfanz, as well as a number of others of those present, favored the infliction of electrocution instead of hanging.

The contest between Mayor Tom L. Johnson and Congressman Theodore E. Burton for the mayoralty of Cleveland promises to be exciting and interesting from start to finish. It is probable that President Roosevelt and Secretary Taft will visit Cleveland to speak for Burton, and that W. J. Bryan and other leading Democrats will speak for Johnson.

Here and There.

A great grand-daughter of President Zachary Taylor is being held in St. Louis on the grounds of insanity.

The Omaha & Texas express on the Rock Island was raided near Murdock, Neb., by three masked men. The robbers went through the chair car, robbing every passenger therein, securing their pocketbooks and purses.

There will be no street car strike in Louisville. The credit for this happy consummation is due to Mayor Robert W. Bingham and Sheriff Scott Bullitt, who, taking charge of an apparently hopeless situation, worked strenuously and finally secured an agreement from the company, which was accepted by the union men unanimously.

In the event the requisite number of legal voters of Lincoln county vote in favor of said appropriation it is ordered that this court cause the bonds of Lincoln county in the amount of $35,000 to be prepared, executed and issued on printed forms under the seal of the county, to be signed by the County Judge of Lincoln County Court and countersigned by the Clerk of said Court payable to bearer at Lincoln County National Bank of Stanford, Kentucky; which bonds shall not bear a greater rate of interest than four percent, payable semi-annually on the first day of January and July; and the bonds shall be attached to said bonds signed by the Clerk of the Lincoln County Court; said bonds shall be issued in three series to-wit: Series "A," Series "B," and Series "C"; Series "A," comprising ten thousand dollars of the sum of $35,000 each and numbered one to twenty; Series "B," comprising ten thousand dollars of the sum of $35,000 each and numbered twenty-one to forty; and Series "C," comprising five thousand dollars of the sum of $35,000 each and numbered forty-one to forty-five.

THE Tri-County Teachers' Institute, which held a five days' session in Lancaster, closed Friday after a very profitable and pleasant meeting. It was conducted by Prof. W. A. Clark, of Nebraska, and assisted by Prof. Park, of Lexington. Prof. Ireland, of the Stanford Graded School, entertained the body with a talk on reading, which was delivered in his usual lucid manner. Lincoln county was well represented, 65 teachers being present. It was ascertained at this meeting that Lincoln has almost twice the number of teachers that Boyle or Garrard counties have, which shows that our educational interests are being well looked after.

THE Somerset fair was bigger, better and brighter than ever. The premiums this year were the most liberal ever hung up by the association and they brought the best horses in this section of the State to compete for them. The running and trotting races were also the best in the history of the association and would have been a credit to Lexington or Louisville. 'Twas a great fair and the promoters have a right to feel proud of their achievement. Over 10,000 people were there on Thursday and every person was well cared for. It was a great outpouring of Pulaski yeomanry—the best people in the country. Friday they were there by the thousands again and the I. J. man was fortunate enough to be in their midst. The 1907 meet will live long in history.

THE Water Light & Ice Co., through Messrs. G. L. Penny and B. F. Rout, has purchased a new dynamo for the light plant and it will be installed in about a week. It was bought of a Fort Wayne, Ind., firm through its agent at Cincinnati and is the latest and most improved pattern, having a capacity of 55 acres of 1,200 candle power each. The work of putting in the dynamo will in no way interfere with the lights in residences or business houses.

WORK OF "UNLOADED" GUN.—J. S. Goode, aged 32 years, a switchman, was shot and badly wounded at 12:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon by O. B. Palmer, aged 22 years, another switchman, while the latter was carelessly snapping an "unloaded" revolver. The shooting took place at the boarding house of Mrs. A. H. Hallem, 638 Julia street, where both of the men lived. C. W. Tate, J. F. De Moss, H. A. Schell, J. S. Goode and O. B. Palmer, all of whom live at 638 Julia street, were in a room together, when Palmer, who the police say, was under the influence of liquor, picked up a revolver, 38-caliber Iver Johnson, and pointing it at Tate snapped it. Goode told Palmer he ought not to play with the revolver, as it was "dangerous business" whether the gun were loaded or not. "Oh, it isn't loaded," said Palmer, and pointing the revolver at Goode he snapped it again. Goode again remonstrated with Palmer and Palmer snapped the revolver a second time at Goode. The gun fired, the bullet taking effect in the right side of Goode's abdomen. The Charity Hospital ambulance was summoned and carried the wounded man to that institution. Palmer left after the shooting and had not been captured last night. Sergeant Azcona, of the First precinct, secured his description and telegraphed it to all stations.—New Orleans paper.
